TESTIMONIALS

"I worked with Linda at Allmerica Financial/The Hanover Insurance Group on multiple occasions in her capacity as an organizational effectiveness professional and a staff coach. Linda facilitated many meetings and team building sessions, and personally designed and ran some sessions in which my team participated. . Linda provided excellent consultative services. She was very adept at developing requirements and designing solutions to meet the team and organizational needs. Linda always maintains a positive outlook and brings tremendous enthusiasm to each of her assignments. Linda possesses excellent communication skills and is skilled in working with individuals at all levels in the organization. She consistently provided sound, well-thought out solutions."

“Linda Johnson delivered a superb and energy-charged workshop to clients in service with Lee Hecht Harrison, entitled Managing Your Buffalo. The goal was to help them to identify and remove obstacles in the way of their effectiveness in job search. Through facilitated discussion, individual activity tasks and partner discussions, Linda guided the group through ways to achieve their goals. Her energy, humor, insights and caring made the experience a positive one for all who attended. They loved it! I would recommend this without hesitation!
